There are dozens of Alice versions. Many accompanied by Critics' opinions or views. But they cannot all fit in to a book and maintain a practical mass. Here is the mass left out; it is not to be overlooked. The nine major sections are: Personal and Biographical As Victorian and Children's Literature Comparisons with other Writers Philosophical and Others Church and Chess Language, Parody, and Satire Freudian Interpretations Jungian and Mythic Psychedelic There is also information on the authors so we know from home we are reading.
