Customer Reviews

Jeremy has a very enjoyable writing style -- hooks you in and doesn't let go. Well-developed characters on both sides of the conflict, enough action for anyone, and twists that will keep you on your toes make this story one for the fantasy lover. My one objection is having started in the middle of the series -- felt a bit "left out" (not much, but a little) and playing catch up. Now I MUST go back and read Books 1 & 2. :)

This is to me a great books seires. I could not stop reading it. If u are looking for a adventure pick up this seires. J.T Williams keep you wanting more can't wait to see where this leads to with all the characters .

This was a great read! J.T. Williams is a relatively new author for me. This third installment in The Half-Elf Chronicles Sword and Sorcery series is amazing. The research, imagination, and attention to detail helps you the reader, join Kealin and his companions in an adventurous journey of discovery. There are so many profound layers. Each building on the one before...intricate in thought and action. I'm in love with J.T.'s writing style. In fact, if I could get a hold of some of those magical Varmark pine nuts..I'd really be set to join in. I'm excited to see how the next installment in the series unfolds.

This latest adventure is the best of the bunch so far. Kealin continues in the search for his missing sister and the redemption of his brother. Along the way are sacrifices of friends and betrayal. Who is really the enemy? Mr. Williams team has done a much better proofing and the repetitious thought process of the main character has not been continued in this very intriguing story.
