Fear Of Falling (Worth The Fall)

Synopsis

Caroline has a past with a guy, and a baby to share. When that relationship comes to an end she has to move on. The first step to moving on when your boyfriend is cheating on you is to hookup with some guy from a bar. The second step to moving on is to run back home. Every gesture, every move that Matthew made, made me feel like never before. He found me when I needed him the most and he never failed to hold me when I needed him. He never failed to not make me laugh, he never failed to not make me feel better. When everything is wrong, he makes it right. For Matt, falling in love was never in his play book. His 5 year plan only included hockey. So when Caroline has found her way under his skin, making his heart beat funny, and could turn him on just by walking he knows he's in trouble. A tragic loss tears Caroline and Matt apart, and a tragic loss brings them back together. This e-book may contain material not suitable for readers under 18. It may be triggering for persons suffering from eating disorders or self-harm. Please seek help. There is also a use of strong language and sexual encounters.
